

Management

K9NOSE has the management of this website in its own hands. Our contact details can be found elsewhere on the site.

Your data

We respect the privacy of our customers and other visitors to our website and ensure that all personal information provided by you is treated confidentially by us in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and therefore this information will never be shared with third parties without your consent. If you do not agree with the way in which we handle your data, you can submit a complaint about this to the Dutch Data Protection Authority.

Your registration and name and address details

If you register online via our website, all data entered on the online registration form will be stored in our customer database and online registration system. We store the customer base and the online registration system in a secure environment. Our customer base and the online registration system are only visible to the owner of K9NOSE and employees.

Retrieve data

You have the right at all times to view and change the customer data you have provided to us.

Google Analytics

K9NOSE uses Google Analytics to monitor how users use our website. The information obtained with this is transferred together with your IP address to Google's servers in the United States. Google uses this information to keep track of how our website is used, to provide us with information and to provide its advertisers with information about the effectiveness of their campaigns. Google may pass this information on to third parties as soon as they are legally obliged to do so or as soon as third parties process the information on behalf of Google. K9NOSE has no influence on this. We ourselves optimize our website by keeping general visitor data. In this context, your IP address, the time of use and the data from your browser can be registered and used for statistical analyzes of your visit and click-through behavior on our site. This information is never provided to third parties.

Cookies

K9NOSE uses cookies on its website to optimize the functionality of the pages of our website. By storing the cookies, we can serve you even better on your next visit. You can set in your browser whether you allow the use of cookies or not or partially. You can also delete cookies from your computer at any time via your browser. K9NOSE is also present on Facebook. Facebook uses codes by means of which they place cookies. You can read what Facebook does with these cookies in Facebook's privacy statement. K9NOSE has no influence on this.

Adjust privacy statement

K9NOSE is entitled to change the content of this privacy statement without informing you personally. The implemented changes will be available for viewing on this website.
